

Dispute Resolution Group

The Dispute Resolution Group at Advocaat Law Practice works in synergy with the other non-contentious practice groups to provide a seamless service to our clients. This strategy enables us at the earliest possible time, to assess the risk of potential or threatened dispute and to provide our clients with early advice that can prevent costly litigation.

Our approach is to always understand the client's needs, structure and implement an effective strategy tailored to the identified need and provide vigorous representation to ensure that the client is not prejudiced in the pursuit of their claim. We have extensive expertise and experience across key industry sectors and are skilled in the various modes of dispute resolution including: litigation, arbitration, mediation and conciliation.

Our extensive experience covers the following:

Commercial Dispute

Joint ventures: disputes arising from shareholders agreements and deadlocked joint venture companies; Mergers and Acquisitions: disputes relating to public and private deals; Equity capital markets: disputes arising from IPOs and other offerings; Commercial: insurance, sale of goods, pensions and employment disputes; Technology, Media and Telecommunications: all contentious contractual and regulatory matters; Shareholder claims: requisitions for the removal of directors and unfair prejudice or oppression claims; Public and Administrative: judicial review; Tax: tax-related litigation and tribunal claims.

Energy Disputes

Construction of offshore production facilities: disputes arising out of EPC contracts such as variation and liquidated damages; operation of take-or-pay gas supply agreements: dispute arising from take or pay obligations under Gas Sales Purchase Agreements and Power Purchase Agreements; Construction of commercial property developments: disputes arising from the construction of real estate: liquidated damages; Design and construction of Independent Power Projects: disputes arising from power purchase agreements, fuel supply and transportation agreements; Development of oil and gas fields: disputes arising from determination and redetermination of unitized fields, oil spill and environmental claims.

Arbitration/Mediation

Our team of arbitration specialists have extensive experience in developing dispute mitigation strategies as well as conducting arbitral proceedings and have represented several clients before various arbitration panels.

Key Contact

Nnamdi Ukamba

T +234 1 453 1004, +234 1 4547932

F +234 1 2714044

E nnamdi.ukamba@advocaat-law.com